

QUEEN ARRESTED.

Capture of One More of the Lane Family.

Judge Whiting To Be a Member of the Court-Martial.

Most of the leaders of the insurrection and the royal lady in whose behalf the movement purported to have been made are in custody. The gathering in of rebel arms and ammunition continues. There is but left the trial by court-martial and punishment of the assailants of the republic and their aiders and abettors. The last twenty-four hours have been eventful and their record is given below.

COUNCILS OF THE REPUBLIC

Meeting to Fill Vacancies and Make a War Appropriation.

An adjourned meeting of the Executive and Advisory Councils was held this afternoon. It was fixed for 2 o'clock, but it was 2:15 before the meeting was called to order. President W. F. Allen presided, with whom were present: President Dole, Ministers King, Damon and Smith; Councillors Bolte, Ena, Morgan, Nott, Emmelhut, Tenney and D. B. Smith.

President Allen withdrew the name of P. C. Jones, at his request, from the list of candidates.

Mr. Bolte did the same service for Dr. McGrew.

Mr. Smith nominated T. B. Murray as a man who deserved the position from having been to the front from the first of the movement.

A communication was read from Captain Smith of Co. A, endorsing nominations of other companies.

The nominations of the Citizens' Guard and the American League were F. A. Hosmer, C. B. Wood, Geo. P. Castle, J. A. Kennedy and P. J. Froin. The other candidates were L. L. McCandless, Geo. W. Smith and T. B. Murray.

There was a discussion on forms ending in the suspension of a rule.

Mr. Smith withdrew the name of Mr. Murray, as a number of gentlemen had been nominated by the American League, of which Mr. Murray is president.

The ballot for four Councillors resulted as follows:

No. of votes cast.....	12
HOSMER.....	12
CASTLE.....	10
WOOD.....	9
KENNEDY.....	8
SMITH.....	6
McCandless.....	3

The first four were declared elected.

Mr. Kennedy was brought into the room in volunteer's uniform by Col. Fisher and Major McLeod, the Councillor elect having been on guard duty.

The other elected candidates were sent for by telephone and Dr. Wood and G. P. Castle arriving they with Mr. Kennedy were sworn as members by Judge Cooper.

Minister Damon introduced an act to appropriate fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) from the public treasury for the purpose of defraying the general expenses incident to the suppression of the rebellion of the month of January, 1895.

Under suspension of the rules the bill was passed through its three readings.

"Three minutes and twenty seconds," said Mr. Emmelhut, laughingly.

President Dole introduced a bill to amend Act 46 of the Laws of the Provisional Government. It provides that vacancies of offices in military companies in active service or in times of insurrection may be filled by the Commander-in-Chief.

There was a vacancy and it was desirable to have it filled by a man of legal attainments to assist in the court-martial for the trial of prisoners made during the insurrection. Judge Whiting had been selected to fill the vacancy, and he would be commissioned on the passage of the bill.

Under suspension of the rules the bill was passed through all its stages.

At 3:17 the Councils adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

ARREST OF THE QUEEN.

She Asks for Time to Dress and Makes No Fuss.

About 10 o'clock this morning Deputy-Marshal Brown and Robert Parker drove to Washington Place, by order of the Marshal, to arrest ex-Queen Liliuokalani. Liliuokalani was found sitting in the parlor. Mr. Brown made her acquainted with the object of their mission. The Queen replied that she was quite willing to accompany them, and requested time to dress suitably. The request was allowed. The Queen appeared shortly afterward, accompanied by Mrs. Chas. Clark. The party entered the hacks waiting outside and were driven to the Executive building. There the Queen was turned over to Col. Fisher. She was allotted the room on the south corner, formerly occupied by Queen Dowager Kapiolani. The apartment is comfortably furnished, and the ex-royal occupant will receive proper care and attention during her enforced stay. Mrs. Clark remains as her companion.

IN AID OF AUTHORITY.

Two Wealthy Residents Come to the Aid of the Republic.

The following communications speak for themselves:

WAIKIKI, Jan. 12, 1895.

SANFORD B. DOLE, President Republic of Hawaii.

Dear Sir:—As it has been impossible for me personally to leave my family at their somewhat isolated home at Kapiolani Park to offer my services for patrol duty in protecting the town of Honolulu, I wish you to understand that I do not the less appreciate the valuable services performed by others in protecting life and property, and I beg herewith to offer to defray all of the expenses of twenty-five men who may enlist as soldiers for one month from date of the insurrection, as a proof of my sympathy.

I am, very truly yours,
W. G. IRWIN.

HONOLULU, Jan. 14, 1895.

MY DEAR MR. DOLE:

I beg to inclose for your acceptance a check for $1000. Please dispose of this as you will. In doing this, allow me to extend to you and all the members of the executive my sincere sympathy during the severe and anxious time you are having in quelling this most serious rebellion, and to further express my appreciation of all you are doing to restore peace and safety to the citizens of Hawaii.

With my aloha, believe me,
Yours very sincerely,
T. MAY.

ARMS AND AMMUNITION.

Rebel Prisoners Giving Away their Locations.

Detective Larsen, Dick Kekona and Sam Ku, piloted by Iola, one of Wilcox's lieutenants, drove out of Waialae this morning. Among the shrubs and scattered in different locations were found fourteen carbines and five belts, one filled with cartridges. Iola stated that these were abandoned when the rebels were shelled by the military. At the time some of the rebels were carrying two and three carbines. The rifles although rusty are in good condition.

Yesterday Detective Larsen and his men found two rifles and over one hundred rounds of ammunition in a bush in Kalihi Valley. Iola showed the officers the location. These were thrown away when Wilcox and his ten followers escaped across Nuuanu Valley into Kalihi.

About 10 o'clock this morning Charles Bartow, a prisoner and one of Wilcox's followers, was brought from Oahu Prison. He had volunteered to guide the police to where sixty Winchester carbines besides a large amount of ammunition had been hidden. Five specials accompanied the guide to a point on the beach below Diamond Head, where the munitions of war were found.

RETURN OF THE TROOPS.

They Come Into Town Singing and Decked with Garlands.

All the military companies with the exception of Captain Ziegler's men returned to the Executive building yesterday evening, to have a much needed rest. Owing to the crowded condition of that building and the barracks, Captain Wilder's company was stationed in tents in the Executive building yard. Lieutenant Coyne's company sang "Marching Through Georgia" as they came along E street. As each company rose in sight of the Executive building rousing cheers broke forth from those stationed there.

About 9:30 o'clock this morning Captain Ziegler and his company with the field piece came in from Manoa. The entire company was decked with evergreens and flowers. Captain Ziegler himself wore a wreath of red flowers, which he said his girl gave him in Manoa. No sooner had they reached the King street gate of the Executive building than Drum Major W. C. King with his camera photographed the group. After the company had entered the yard they were a second time photographed by J. J. Williams. Captain Wilder's company was also "shot" by Williams.

Arrests.

The following additional arrests are recorded on the Police Station calendar:

Prisoners of war.—D. Damiana, Kahoomanuwani, Kini, J. Mahoe, Patrick Lane, Manuel K. Rosa, Kana.

Held for investigation: Sam Enoka, S. Paakaula, Kauhau, Joe Fern, Makawala, Kealo Nalei.

Treason: Makakoa, Kahalewai.

Conspiracy: J. K. Baker, Maunaloa.

Charles T. Gulick, who was Minister of the Interior in 1894 '95, was arrested yesterday afternoon. He was put in one of the cells upstairs. Mr. Gulick has been in poor health lately.

Two Noted Rebels.

It was reported last night that Lot Lane was captured. Two prisoners were shortly after the report driven in hacks to the station escorted by mounted police. It was not Lot but his brother Patrick who came in, together with Manuel Rosa. Marshal Hitchcock wondered how many more Lanes there were to catch. Patrick is the father of one of the first two Lanes arrested. Manuel Rosa is said to have been the chief guide of the rebels in the mountain wilds, as he knows every foot of the country. Special Officer Weirick is credited on the book with these important arrests.

The Hermit's Capture.

Alohiaka, the hermit of Mount Tantalus, reported to the police that four natives were in hiding in the mountains in the rear of his abode. The hermit returned to his home and awaited the arrival of the officers. He finally became impatient and brought the four natives himself and turned them over to the first squad of guards he met on the road. The natives accompanied the old man peacefully. When Detective Alohiaka and his men arrived at Alohiaka's house the natives had gone. The hermit had brought them down by another trail.

Shooting the Police.

Clerk Hammer, now purveyor-general to the police force and the Citizens' Guard, marched with a squad of police to Hackfeld & Co.'s this afternoon and the wise ones immediately knew that arms and munitions of war were to be seized. Instead of such action the boys in blue were fitted out with better understandings than they possessed, in recognition of the wear and tear of their roles and uppers in their late mountain scouting. Stockings were added to the shoes and the police contingent were pleased.

The Only Paper.

The Star was "the only paper in the world" to be found in Nowlen's camp at Moiliili. When the capture was made on Monday a copy of last Saturday's issue of "The Star" was found. Prof. Alexander kept it as a curiosity, it being the first one ever discovered to have got so far away from town. If it had not been so badly "handicapped" by Nowlen and his comrades it might possibly have traveled on to Waimanalo pass to be seized by Cecil Brown and his squad.

Bomb Exhibited.

During the wait for elected candidates at the Councils this afternoon, Col. Fisher entered and exhibited to those present one of the rebel bombs. It was a cast iron round shell about three inches in diameter with a copper fuse that had been wedged in the hole with broken matches. Attorney-General Smith said that it had been decided that the bombs were made in Honolulu.

The Tram Cars.

The Marshal having intimated to the Tramways Company that the cars will be permitted to run during the hours of 5 a. m. and 9:30 p. m., traffic was recommenced about midday to-day. Owing to the necessity of the cars being in the yard by 9:30, the service will be irregular during the last hour.

A Correction.

Captain Filmore of the British steamer Bentala desires a contradiction of the report, alleged to have been made to the Marshal, that he was a stranger walking around the town during the night. He is always on board his ship before 8 o'clock at night and always remains there during the night.

Beautiful Present.

Henry Waterhouse yesterday presented Marshal E. G. Hitchcock with a handsome gold watch and chain in a plush box. The case is beautifully chased and within is an inscription saying the watch was presented in memory of the fourteenth of January, 1895.

Various Items.

It is supposed that 200 stand of arms are cached at Kakaako.

Thomas Wright suggests that the rank and file of the prisoners of war should be set to clear the country of lauanas.

Some of the specials will be discharged either to-day or to-morrow.

A number of useless rifle guns were brought to the Station this noon.

The crowd around the Station has gradually diminished in number.

Two wagon loads of specials were sent out this morning to search houses for arms.

Captain Hookano, of the police force, is said to have distanced his companions in the climb over the hills. The captain weighs 220 pounds.

Senior Captain Robert Parker was one of the most elated individuals this morning on the receipt of the news that Lot Lane had been captured. Bob was heard to say, "No more climbing for me."

A Portuguese guard in Nuuanu Valley halted a mounted patrolman the other night. The patrolman told him who he was, but Miguel wanted to see "some papers." He further said, patting his rifle, that he plenty bean in there. The patrolman took out a pocket book and was allowed to come up. Grasping the rifle he opened the magazine and found it empty.

Patrick Lane looked very watch-worn and weary on his arrival at the Police Station last evening.

Manuel Rosa, the guide to the Wilcox party along the intricacies of Manoa and Pauoa Valleys, produced the most coin of any "prisoner of war" yet arrested, on being searched at the Station. Three Kalakaua dollars showed that his treasury was not empty.

The quiet of the Police Station was only disturbed from midnight until 6 o'clock this morning by a telephone desiring the "Kalihi" Receiving Station.

Prof. Berger has a new march. It is called the "National Guard of Hawaii."

Councillor Jas F. Morgan is suffering in the eyes, having to wear a black screen over one optic.

"Sam," the colored man who was the objective point for several shots from the guards at the Executive building the other night, was arrested last night by Detectives for roaming about without a pass.

When "Sam" was booked at the Station and was told he would be kept there he smiled at the prospect of three meals per day.

News Confirming His Stowing Away on the S. N. Castle to Hand.

William H. Aldrich arrived in San Francisco on board the barkentine S. N. Castle on Dec. 22d. The S. N. Castle was thirty days making the passage, having struggled nearly all the way against head winds. Aldrich was interviewed shortly after his arrival by a San Francisco Chronicle reporter. Aldrich gave quite a lengthy interview, winding up as follows:

"I went aboard the S. N. Castle with another person on the night of Nov. 21st. At 11 a. m. the next day the Castle sailed. Before she started the vessel was searched from stem to stern. I had been missed, and a policeman said he saw two men go aboard the vessel and that only one came off. The detectives made a great search for me, but they did not find me. I will not say where I was hid, but I will admit that it was not in a very comfortable place. I had room for my bundle of clothes and a little lunch. I stayed in hiding from the night of the 21st until the 24th, when I showed up. Captain Hubbard threatened to turn back and put me on shore again, but as he had got far away and the weather was bad, he decided to continue on his course. From that on I got along all right, though I was a little afraid for a while that I would be put back on shore. I was treated very nicely by everybody after that. I desire to state, though, that no officer or man on the vessel aided me to escape. I was in the Custom House long enough to learn the hiding places about ships, and I picked out a good one all by myself. It is needless to say that I am glad to be back in San Francisco."

MERCHANTMAN FROM CHINA.

The Lina Arrives With Chinese New Year's Goods.

The German bark Lina, Captain F. Albrecht, arrived this morning, 90 days from Hongkong, a somewhat lengthy passage. The Lina is a trim-looking craft. She is consigned to Messrs. Fong & Co., Chinese merchants. Her passage was uneventful. She brought 800 tons of general merchandise, chiefly Chinese new year's goods. She brought no passengers, but had two stowaways—John Johnson and John Barowski. They were handed over to the police.

The British bark Velocity, Capt. Martin, left Hongkong the latter end of November and may be expected here the middle of February. Owing to the war the Velocity will bring no passengers.

Nineteen people were killed and sixty injured in a railway accident at Bedford near Crewe, England. The latest advices are that China has decided to absolutely surrender through the friendly offices of America.

Representative William Waldorf Astor died at Clevedon, England, Dec. 22.

Lord Randolph Churchill is returning to England, after a tour of the world, utterly broken in health.

Some time ago Mr. Simon Goldbaum of San Luis Rey, Cal., was troubled with a lame back and rheumatism. He used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and a prompt cure was effected. He says he has since advised many of his friends to try it and all who have done so have spoken highly of it. It is for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for Hawaiian Islands.

Inflammation Subdued and Tortures Ended by Hood's

"I am so glad to be relieved of my tortures that I am willing to tell the benefits I have derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla. In April and May, I was afflicted with erysipelas in my face and eyes, which spread to my throat and neck. I tried divers ointments and alternatives, but there was no permanent abatement of the burning, torturing pain, peculiar to this complaint. I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and Felt Marked Relief before I had finished the first bottle. I continued to improve until, when I had taken four
